Chief Judge Dennis Jacobs of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit announced today a new procedure for the filing and posting of the Court's decisions. Hereafter, all opinions and summary orders for the day will be filed and posted to the Court's Internet site by 10:30 a.m. each morning. Parties, attorneys, the public and members of the media may access <http://www.ca2.uscourts.gov/opinions.htm> to view a list of opinions and summary orders that have been issued that day, and to obtain copies of any of them. Attorneys and pro se parties will also be individually notified of the posting of the decision. Except for emergency filings, no opinion or summary order will issue after 10:30 a.m.

Chief Judge Jacobs said: "This new arrangement will allow lawyers, the public and the press to check on pending cases just once a day, and will afford the press an opportunity to review and digest court decisions for next-day reporting."
